HATS OFF TO OUR VOLUNTEERS

What is the definition of a volunteer? A volunteer is one who enters into any service voluntarily, one who offers their services freely. According to that definition, it is apparent that each of us are volunteers in some form or another. During this week of the Volunteer let us take a few moments to take our hats off to all of the volunteers who work so hard for so little pay.

Many of us work with volunteers on a daily basis, and because of their services, our programs work and continue to run smoothly. So this week we would like to extend a big thank you to all who work in our church. Your work and accomplishments are greatly appreciated!

For others of you that may also have volunteers, here are a few suggestions of things that you might do for the Week of the Volunteer in order to make the day a little bit brighter.

1. Smile
2. Send a birthday card
3. Invite to staff meeting
4. Be pleasant
5. Keep challenging them
6. Say “good morning” and “good afternoon”
7. Have a public reception
8. Write them thank-you notes
10. Promote a “volunteer-of-the-month program

There are many other things you can do to sow appreciation, but sometimes just letting your volunteers know how much they're needed is the greatest gift of all!

Here is a different definition of the Volunteer – Any person who works their hardest to accomplish tasks even though no pay is involved. A person who helps another in order to make life a little bit more manageable. Inally; a volunteer is a very special individual who, on many, many occasions, is a life saver!

#####

“God has created me to do Him some definite service;
He has committed some work to me
which he has not committed to another.
I have my mission . . .
I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.
I shall do good. I shall be an angel of peace,
A preacher of truth in my own place . . .
If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him;
in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him;
if I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him.
He sows nothing in vain,
He knows what He is about.

Sunday of Easter

“The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.” (Acts 13:52)

Because the disciples heard Our Lord’s call, they were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. We, too, can experience that same joy if we take time to open our hearts, listen to God, ask for His direction and allow the Holy Spirit to guide our lives and our decisions.
