Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for May
Evangelization – Formation in Spiritual Discernment

That the Church may appreciate the urgency of formation in spiritual discernment, both on the personal and communitarian levels.

Stewardship Moments "This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" - JOHN 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?

MESSAGE FROM MONSIGNOR THE HOLY SPIRIT

Given my difficulty in typing with a broken arm, this week I will directly quote an excerpt from a reflection by John Foley, SJ writing for The Sunday Website, sponsored by St. Louis University. With Pentecost it is good to begin reflecting on the Holy Spirit.

The First Reading is a continuation of Jesus' frequent predictions about sending the Holy Spirit (Paraclete, Teacher, Comforter) to us after he has ascended to the Father. All who believe and who open their hearts will receive the Spirit.

Stay with this line of reasoning. What is the Spirit? Is it simply a dose of "grace" that we receive or earn in order to be holy? Or that Jesus and the Father send to give us a break? Or a "help"? Or some kind of power coming from God?

None of these.

Listen well: the Holy Spirit is:

God.

Not a representative of God, not a dove that descends on us, not even a point of fire over our heads. It is the complete, true reality of God. And it is marked by Jesus' entire life, death and resurrection, even as the God-head is.

This Spirit quietly makes us able to say yes to faith, not by brutalizing us or overriding us but by inviting us. The Second Reading and the Gospel <<http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/050618.cfm>> are all about what your present writer wants to call "respectful love." I define respectful love as that which never overpowers us but always respects our choice. Rather than a dictator, the Spirit wants to be a companion in our lives, respecting our self, not contradicting it.

Jesus is with us, by means of the his own Spirit within us. He hopes we will accept the offer of his Spirit. If we do, our souls will mingle with God's own reality and we will become a new body for the incarnate God.

We are then called the "Mystical Body of Christ on earth."

You reply, "well great, but why am I so weak in belief, so far from Christ, so prone to sin? This Holy Spirit must be pretty anemic."

No, and here again is the reason.

The Spirit always waits, waits, waits for us to receive life. Jesus is not gone, he is knocking at our inner door.

We can say no. But we can also say yes with our lives.

Through respectful love.

Bishop Folda has given permission to announce the change for the two parishes. He has decided to give me retirement status. Father Peter Anderl Will become the new pastor Our Lady of Peace and Saint Agnes as June 27. Father Anderl Will be coming to you from the parishes in Mooreton and Mantador. I will be living at St. Michael's in Grand Forks. In exchange for free room and two meals a week, I will be expected to provide week-day Masses to assist father Gerard Braun and Kyle Metzger. Other than that my time will be free to do what I wish to do.

Congratulations to our First Communion and Confirmation Students - Easton Hanson, Maddix Moch, Bethany Parsons, Agnes Carlson & Anna Mootz! They received the sacraments on Sunday, April 22nd! Please pray for their continued growth in love for Christ!
